Bruxelles, 7 September 2022

FCA Bank's growth in Europe continues, driven by innovation. The Bank, a leader in mobility services with almost one hundred years of experience in the car financing sector, has signed a cooperation agreement with Mazda Motor Belux for the provision of financial services to end customers in Belgium and Luxembourg.

Mazda Finance will be operational starting from October 1st 2022. According to the agreement, signed by the local branch FCA Bank Belgium, the Bank will provide a wide range of innovative and flexible solutions designed to make Mazda's models more accessible.

In 2021, Mazda represented 1.53% market share in Belgium, with 5,857 vehicles registered.

"We, at Mazda, are very pleased with this partnership" says Tim Bosmans, Managing Director of Mazda Motor Belux. "The cooperation makes it possible to offer our customers not only a very appealing Mazda car, but also at a very interesting, commercial and competitive monthly rate".

"We are proud to start this partnership with Mazda in Belgium and Luxembourg" says Marcella Merli, CEO of the FCA Bank Belgium branch; "With our extensive know-how in financial and mobility services for the automotive sector, developed over years of experience in both countries, we will greatly contribute in the growth and the success of its brand".

"Thanks to this agreement, the number of FCA Bank partners in Europe increases to include a prestigious, successful and rapidly expanding company: a new step forward on the road that is leading us to establish ourselves as a reference in the car financing and mobility sector" added Giacomo Carelli, CEO and General Manager of FCA Bank S.p.A..
